

Tip of the month: December 2008

A word a day!

In order to improve your level in English it is important to build your vocabulary. You should try to learn one new word or expression everyday and revise your lists as often as possible.

To do so, you could download our vocabulary calendar or you can keep a notebook and organize the words and expressions in alphabetical order.

Remember also to note down an example sentence and a translation. Here is an example:

New Word	Example Sentence	Translation
To attend	I attended a meeting yesterday.	Assister à
